

The Princess Wearing Pants

Princess Pineapple was beautiful, and she had many colorful dresses. But, she was very different from other princesses. "I wear pants because I have lots of things to do!" said Princess Pineapple.

Each morning, Princess Pineapple got up to exercise. She put on her yoga pants and a T-shirt because a workout was no place for a skirt.

After the exercise, the princess went to the garden. She grew tomatoes and corn. "To feed those in need is my duty." said Princess Pineapple in pants. She had no time to dress up.

Then one night, there was a dance party. People were in their fine clothes. Lady Busy said, "Pants have no place on a lady!"

Princess Pineapple looked at her dresses and thought, "I want to wear whatever I want! I love to dress up, just as pretty as others but I still have to be ME!"

At the party, the royal kitten fell into the pond in the garden! She was soaked from ear to toe. People cried out, "Help! She cannot swim!"

Princess Pineapple was ready. Under her dress was her pink swimming suit! She jumped into the water and swam to the cat. The cat was saved.

Everyone was happy and shouted, "Princess Pineapple is amazing!" Lady Busy said, "From now on, princesses could wear whatever they like. We have all learned a lesson from Princess Pineapple today."